

“The AlignStar® Ecosystem of partners provides any client with the best-of-breed expertise to complete their territory alignment projects.”

MIKE VOLLMAN, PRESIDENT OF ALIGNSTAR®

AlignStar® Consulting Services has a deep well of experience, having helped over 2000 companies align territories.

With our rich network of partner consultants, demonstrated effectiveness, and responsive approach, we provide everything from on-the-spot technical support to outside referrals. All tailored to your measurements.

WHY US?

Proven Ability

Our consulting services have helped thousands of territory plans come to fruition. Call us for help, receive advanced training, or work with our partner organizations. Design and implement your own territory plans and see results befitting a 21st-century company.

Flexible Approach

No rigid scripts or photocopied responses – all of our offerings are geared to you. Be it support, training, or consulting: what is it you need? That’s what we’ll provide.

In Good Company

By using AlignStar you join a network of the best. Leading consulting firms worldwide have partnered with us to create a complete territory resource management solution. You won’t be in a vacuum – you’ll be part of the story.

WHAT WE OFFER

Support

Help when you need it. Unlimited phone and email support with in-house experts who help with everything from technical difficulties to alignment advice. Don’t toil in the dark. Drop us a line.

Training

Become the expert. Attend standard training classes at our HQ facility or at a remote class location. Receive custom training at your office taught by veterans who know the software and the business.

Consulting

A growing coalition. Connect with our network of specialists with expertise across multiple industries. Get help transforming the way you go-to-market and align sales resources.

Partners

Align with the finest. Leading firms partner with us to offer world-class map data, proprietary market data, and cutting-edge technology integration.
